Gentlemen;

It is well known in the last Sessions of Parliament, (that for raising of a Duty to the Crown) an Act passed for stamping all Almanacks or Calendars, that should after the First of August last, for the Space of 32 Years be Printed, Vended or Sold, and the Penalty of Ten Pounds to be Paid for every such Almanack or Calendar, that is not so Mark'd or Stamp'd.

Now, because I wou'd avoid having the least Contest with the Crown, or any of its Ministers, which might Colourably be set on Foot, in Virtue of the said Act against me, about this Ephemeris, or any other Malicious Prosecution, which might be agitated by the Company of Stationers, by reason of such Omission, and thereby make it seem a Property to obtain their Sinister and base Ends, and then, instead of being Prosecutors themselves, to turn Informers, and appear as Witnesses against me; for this reason I have Comply'd and Printed Stamp'd Paper, altho' it be no Almanack but an Ephemeris, i. e. Astronomical Tables of the Planets Diurnal Motions and their Aspects, a Tyde Table, &c. and other usefull Matters, which are no essential Part of an Almanack, and what may be less or inserted therein: For it is not to be supposed, that if the Author of an Almanack, at any Time inserts any Matter, or Thing that once conceived may be acceptable to the World, that therefore such Matter is part of an Almanack: No, for then Bonds and Bills, Distances from Town to Town, being in Almanacks, must be the Company of Stationers Property by Virtue of that Patent, &c. and therefore must not be medled with.

But such is the Avarice of the Stationers Company, that by the Force of their Patent granted about 100 Years since, at which time Almanacks were then but small Trifling Penny or Two-penny Books, and contain'd only the 7 Dominical Letters, to represent the particuler Days of the Week, shewing what Day of the Month they fell on, and the Saints Days, &c. with the Changes of the Moon, which were Pirated, or Stolen from the Voluminous Ephemerides of those Times, as is easy to be prov'd. That therefore they have a Right to Ephemerides themselves, which is not mentioned in their Patent, or that Ephemerides, (which some of their Poultry Authors annually Plunder, and for want of wou'd a great Loss) must not contain the Figures 1, 2, 3, &c. for the Days of the Month, is an absurd Supposition. vale.

To the Honourable Parliament of Great-Britain, the Happy Preservers of the Establish'd Church from Atheism, Whiggism, and Fanatism, the Faithful Securers of the Crowns Just Rights, and the Liberties and Privileges of the People, against the O Game of 1641.

TO you Great Patriots, who in Time foresaw,
The Danger of Religion and the Law;
To YOU, who rescu'd a declining Land
From Satan's Brood, and Envy's crushing Hand;
And to the Safety of the Church, and Throne, Unbind'd those Plots, the Whiggs were pushing on,
Whilst Cryes of Pop'ry, made believing Fools
To their own Ruin, the Destructive Tools:
So the fond Nurse, or Mother, when inclin'd,
To bend the Stubborn Infant to Her Mind.
Will, in a seeming Terrour, starting Cry,
Come hither Child, the naughty Bug-bears nigh.
To you the Glory of the British Isle,
On whom the Queen, the Church and Nation Smile:
With Zeal unfeign'd, most humbly I submit,
These Labour'd Sheets, and cast them at your Feet,
Wherein you'll find each Planetary Star
Dispos'd to put a Period to the War.
Conspiring all, with eager Haste to Crown,
The Heav'nly Work you have so well begun,
That the True Church, establish'd by the Hand
Of Providence, may flourish in the Land;
Whilst Low-Church Whiggs shall turn their Necks a wheel
And Grin, to see Her justly rais'd so High.
May you with Hearts Unanimous, Complete
The Happy Task, so Glorious and so Great.
That Thanks, and Praise Immortal, may be due Next to the King of Kings, to th Queen, and YOU.
Then may we hope to see that Canting Race,
Those Zealous Rebels, painted o'er with Grace:
Conform in Time, turn Christians by degrees,
Obey the Sov'reign Pow'r, live at Ease,
Honour that Holy Church they now Abuse,
Or else be scatter'd, like their Brethren Jews.

Gentlemen &c. that are desirous to accomplish themselves with the Latin Tongue may be atten-and Taught, by an Easy Method, that burdens not the Memory, requiring nothing to be got by Heart, nor hinders their Affairs, but by applying One Hour a Day at leisure, they may make an unexpected progress. By N Bailey, Author of the Exercises in English and Latin. who is to be spoken with at Rocoffee-House in Exchange Alley, over against the Simonyal-Exchange, and at this Authors-House.

THE use of this Table, is to shew in what Year of Christ any Lease or Evidence was made, in which is only mentioned the Year of the Kings Reign when Executed, and at the same view readily shews how many Years is since Expired,

E X A M P L E.

Admit, I have a Lease for a 100 Years, bearing Date the 23^d. of April in the 20th Year of the Reign of King Charles I. And I wou'd know how much of my Lease is Expired, and also in what Year of Christ the same was Executed. -- I look in that part of the Table when King Charles I. began to Reign, for 20 the time of its grant, in the Column of Kings Reign and even with it on the Left-hand is 1644 the Year of our Lord when it was made, and on the Right-hand is 68 which is the Number of Years that are past. Then this 68 being Subtracted from 100 the Year of the Lease, there will remaine 32 the Number of Years, that are yet to come.

Note, To prevent any Errors, you are to Observe the Day of the Month, when any King or Queen began their Reign; for on the same Day in any Year afterwards, they begin a new Year of their Regency.

Suppose as before, I have a Lease bearing Date the 20th of February in the Year 1703 According to the Computation of the Church of England, which ends its Date 24th of March, I would know in what Year of the Queen the same was made: Now this being before the 8 of March, the day when Queen Ann began her Reign, and in the Year 1703. it is plain by the Table that it was in the 2^d Year of her Reign; which if it had been Dated in the same Year after the 8th of March, then it wou'd have been made in the 3^d Year of the Queen. The same is to be Obsery'd in any other Reign.

 And look disjoin'd, and broken like your Selves,

Farewel, Proud Heroes of the Canting Strain,
 This Happy Year concludes your Hated Reign:
 No Wonder, since 't's always been your Fate
 To Ride like Beggars that's on Horseback set.
 Therefore ne'er Cover what you're doom'd to lose,
 But quit the Reins, you ne'er could justly use.

A short Historical Explanation of the Holy-days, and other Remarkable Days in the Year 1712. with the Year of our Lord, from whence they commenced.

Of Holy-Days.

Simon Islip, A. Bp. of Canterbury, by a Constitution in the Middle of the 4th Century enjoyn'd the Observation of the Holy-Days we now observe, (except St. Paul's Conversion, and St. Barnabas) and more than what we observe, viz. St. Tho. Becket Mart. on the 19th Decemb. Wednesdays in Easter and Whit-week. The Invention of the H. Cross, May 3d. Corpus Christi Day being Thursday after Trinity Sunday. The Translation of St. Tho. Becket, July 7. St. Mary Magdalen, July 21. St. Lawrence, Aug. 10th. The Assumption of the Virgin Mary, Aug. 12th. The Nativity of the Virgin Mary, Sep. 8th. The Exaltation of the Cross, Sept. 14th. St. Nicholas Dec. 6th. Conception of the Virgin Mary Dec. 8th. The Dedication of every Church to be kept by the Parish, and the Festival of the Saint to which every Church was Dedicated.

Henry Chiche'y. A. Bp. of Canterbury, added St. George, April 3. St. David March 1. St. Chad March 2. St. John of Beverly May 3. St. Winifrid Nov. 3. But the great Number of Holy-days were lessen'd by Convocation, Anno 1536. The Dedication of every Church being order'd to be kept on the first Sunday in October, by Stat. 2d and 3d of Edw. VI. The Conversion of St. Paul, and St. Barnabas were added in the beginning of Q. Elizabeth — Some Days to be kept Holy by Act of Parliament, viz. Nov. 5. a Thanksgiving for the discovery of the Gun-powder-Treasin; the Statute for keeping the Day to be read Morning Prayers on the same Day. May 29, a Thanksgiving for the Restoration of the Royal Family and the Church, Stat. 2 Car. 2. Cap. 14. to be read on Sunday next before. January 30, a Day of Humiliation for the Horrid Murder of K. Charles 1. Stat. 12. Car. 2.

JANUARY.

1 Circumcision, or New-years-Day. when our Lord was Circumcised, according to the Law of Moses, Anno. 1.

6 Epiphany, (commonly called Twelfth-day) when the Magi or Wise Men brought their Offerings to our Saviour, celebrated in Honour of his Manifestation to the Gentiles, by a miraculous Comet, which led the Wise Men to him, who presented him with Gold, Myrrh and Frankincense, in Testimony of his Regality, Humanity and Divinity. Some call this the Day of Christ's Baptism, on which the Holy Ghost appear'd in Form of a Dove, He being about Thirty Years old: Whereupon, the 6th of this Month is stil'd, in an Arabick MS. in the Bodleian Library, Oxon, The Benediction of Waters.

8 Lucian, a Priest and Martyr, Anno 307.

13 Hilary, Bishop and Confessor, Anno 337.

18 Prisca, a Roman Virgin and Martyr, Anno 45.

20 Fabian, Bishop of Rome and Martyr, Anno 251.

21 Agnes, a Roman Virgin and Martyr, Anno 304.

22 Vincent, a Deacon in Spain, and Martyr, Anno 301.

25 St. Paul Converted as he was going to Damascus, to persecute the Christians. He preached the Gospel from Jerusalem to Illyrium, Italy, Spain, and perhaps Britain, and was Beheaded at Rome, under Nero, Anno 68.

30 King Charles I. Murder'd upon a Scaffold, before his own Palace at White-Hall, by the pretended Sanctified Crew, who had sworn Allegiance to him, and voted (but a little before) to make him a Glorious King, Anno 1648, 9.

2 Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, according to Moses's Law, commonly call'd Candlemas-day: On this Day Jesus was presented in the Temple, and proclaim'd by Simeon and Anna to be the Messiah: This Feast was instituted by Justinian the Emperor, Anno 542.

5. Agatha, Virgin and Martyr, Anno 253.

6 Queen ANNE Born Mater Patriæ, Anno 1664.5

14 Valentine, a Priest and Martyr, who suffer'd for the Gospel, Anno 271.

25 St. Matthias who was one of the 70 Disciples, and after the Ascension chosen Apostle by Lot, in the room of Judas the Traytor. He preach'd the Gospel in Macedonia (others say in Africa) and coming afterwards into Judea, was there first stoned by the Jews, and then beheaded after the Roman manner, Anno 51.

3 Shro

The Holydays Expounded.

3 Shrove - Tuesday, a Time set a part for Confession of Sins.

5 Ash - Wednesday, the beginning of the Quadragesimal Fast, dedicated by Pope Gregory the Great, to the sprinkling of Ashes.

8 Queen ANN proclaim'd Queen of Great Britain, &c Anno 1701-2.

25 Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, kept in remembrance of the time when the Angel Gabriel declared our Saviour's Incarnation by the Holy Ghost.

A P R I L.

4 Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, Anno 370.

17 Maunday - Thursday, from a Ceremony anciently us'd by Bishops and Prelates in Cathedrals and Religious Houses, of washing their Subjects Feet, which Ceremony is call'd the fulfilling of the Mandate, and is done in Imitation of our Saviour Christ, who on this Day wash'd his Disciples Feet, telling them they must do the like for one another, which is the Mandate (or Commandment) whence the Day is denominared. At the beginning of this Ceremony (uttered by him after his washing their Feet, John 13. 34.) are sung for an Antiphon, Mandatum novum, do vobis, &c.

18 Good Friday, the Day of the Passion of our Blessed Saviour, wherein he suffered on the Cross, and satisfied for the Sins of the whole World.

20 Easter-day, celebrated in Memory of our Saviour's Resurrection. 'Tis called Pascha, from the Angels Transit in Egypt, (the Lamb which was then kill'd by the Jews in the Passover, being a Type of the Lamb of God who was sacrificed for the Salvation of Mankind) from Pascha. The Northern Parts of England call this Festival by the Name of Pace to this Day. 'Tis called Easter from Eoster (as Verstegan saith) a Goddess of the Old Saxons, whose Feast was celebrated in April. N. B. Let no Man wonder, that a Christian Institution hath a Name affix'd to it from a Pagan Rite; for we call the Lord's-day, or Christian Sabbath by the Name of Sunday, because it was dedicated to the Sun, tho' it be now appropriated to a far more noble Worship; and all the other Names of Days are taken from Heathen Institutions, and unalterably obtain'd before the Plantation of the Gospel, and became so familiar to the People, that at the first alteration of Worship, from Pagan to Christian, and ever since, it was impossible to change the Names of them, so strong is the prevalency of Custom.

The Holydays &c. Expounded.

22. St. George a Cappadocian Martyr for Christianity, Anno 290, the patron Saint of England, and the Day on which Queen ANNE was Crown'd, as have been most of the Kings of England.

25. St. Mark, Nephew to St. Peter, and one of the Four Evangelists, and first Bishop of Alexandria. He suffered Martyrdom by Burning, under Trajan, Anno. 63.

M A Y.

1 St. Philip and St. James, the first of Beitsaida, who preached in Phrigia, and converted Candaules the Eunuch: He was crucified at Hierapolis, Anno 53. The latter St. James Minor, surnamed Justus, Son of Alpheus, Author of the Epistle of that Name, after he had govern'd the Church of Jerusalem 30 Years as Bishop, was ston'd, precipitated from the Pinnacle of the Temple, and had his Brains beat out with a Fuller's Club, in the Seventh Year of Nero.

3 Inventio Crucis, or the finding of the Cross, a Feast in the Roman Church, for the miraculous finding out of the Cross whereon our Saviour suffer'd, by St. Helen, Mother to the Emperor Constantine, Anno 326, after it had been hid and buried 180 Years by the Infidels who had erected a Statue of Venus in the place of it.

19. Dunstan, Arch-bishop of Canterbury, Anno 988.

26. Austin, the first Arch-bishop of Canterbury, An. 608.

29 Holy Thursday, or the Ascension of our Lord into Heaven, the 40th Day after his Resurrection, in sight of his Apostles and Disciples, Anno 33. This Week is called Rogation Week, and the first Day of it is called Rogation Sunday, from Rogare to Pray. This was Instituted by Mamercus, Bishop of Vienna, Anno 450, and consecrated the Prayers for a Blessing upon the Fruits of the Earth, about this time in Blossom. It hath been an ancient Custom in this Week to make Perambulations and Processions, to view the Boundaries of Parishes, in order to prevent Incroachments: Thence it was called by the Saxons, Gaug wuca, i. e. Procession Week.

29 Restoration of Church and State, Anno 1660. after a long horrid Rebellion of 18 Years, begun and carried on by Phanaticks and other Republicans, wherein they murdered their King Charles I. with several of his Nobles, destroy'd others, and at last totally exploded the Evangelical Church of England, with all its Holy Orders, and rob'd the Crown and It of all its Revenues; and then, per Saltum, at one leap (from being Brewers, Coblers, &c.) they became our Princes and Governours. Caveat, The burnt Child dreads the Fire.

8 Pentecost, or the 30th Day after the Resurrection; as the Jewish Pentecost was the 30th Day after the Passover, kept in Memory of the Law deliver'd on Mount Sinai. 'Tis also called Whitsunday, from the Catechumens being clothed in White, and admitted to Baptism on the Eve of this Feast. The Saxons call'd it Wied or Wibed Sunday, i. e. Holy Sunday, upon the account of the descent of the Holy Ghost, which came down on this Day like cloven fiery Tongues upon the Apostles from Heaven.

11 St. Barnabas, Apostle and Martyr; he was Colleague with St. Paul under Gamaliel, and his Fellow-Traveller: He was stoned to death by the Jews at Salamis, Anno 50.

15 Trinity Sunday, is the Octave of Whitsunday, celebrated by the Church (for the Mystery of the blessed Trinity, i. e. One God in Three distinct Persons, Father, Son and Holy Ghost)

Ghost) in Opposition to the Arians, and such like Hereticks, who blasphem'd the same.

24 St. John Baptist, Born, Son of Zachary and Elizabeth, the Fore-runner of our Lord, who being yet in his Mother's Womb, was replenish'd with the Holy Ghost: He was beheaded by Herod, Anno 30.

'Tis also call'd Midsummer-day, from the Summer Solstice being in former Times on this Day, which by the Procession of the Equinoxes, the Solstice is since got to the 10th of this Month; and as our Saviour is supposed to be Born on the Day of the Winter-Solstice, or when the Sun enters Capricorn, which is about the 11th of December, which proceeds the 25th, the Time now Celebrated for our Lord's Birth by 14 Days. In like manner, the Summer-Solstice is 14 Days before Midsummer-day; so that now 'tis Midsummer only in Name, and not the real Season.

29. St. Peter and St. Paul, Celebrated to the joint Memory of those two great Apostles, both suffering for the Gospel under Nero at Rome, the first being Crucified with his Head downward, and St. Paul beheaded on the same Day, and lie buried together, Anno 68.

JULY.

15 Switbin is remembered; he was an holy Bishop of Winchester, Anno 360

It is frequently called Weeping Switbin, whether it be from the abundance of Tears which he shed (as some report) in commiserating the Miseries of the World, or rather from the frequent Rains which fall about this time, produc'd by the Cosmical rising of those two fixed Stars Prosepe and A-selli, with the Sun.

22 Dog days begin, when Sirius a Star of a drying Quality rises cosmically, or with the Sun, and generally produces hot sultry Weather.

25 St. James, Ailed the Great, Brother to St. John the Evangelist, beheaded at Jerusalem by Herod Agrippa, and was the first of the Apostles that had that Honour, An. 45.

AUGUST.

1 Lammas-day, from a forward sort of Wheat call'd Lammas-wheat, which in ancient times was (and in some places still is) a Custom for the Tenant on that Day, to present their Lords with the First-fruits of Harvest, being a Loaf of Bread made of new Wheat.

10 Lawrence, a Deacon who suffer'd Martyrdom with great Constancy, by broiling on a Gridiron, Anno 253.

24 St. Bartholomew Apostle, he preach'd the Gospel in India, &c. then was seized alive and beheaded, Anno 44.

SEPTEMBER.

2 London burnt, Anno 1666.

There is upon the Monument of this City an English Inscription, which relates, that it was burnt by the Popish-Faction; but that not being engraven till the Mayoralty of Sir Patience Ward, Anno 1681, four Years after the finishing of that Pillar, at which time Fanaticism was rampant, and gave Birth to the horrid Rye-house Conspiracy, that was happily discover'd in 1683, by some Persons yet living, gives Suspicion, that there is more Craft than Verity in this Inscription; for the History of those Times relate, That in the Month of April, before that dreadful Fire, one Coll. Rathbone, an Oliverian Officer, with Seven other Persons his Accomplices, were try'd, and upon full Evidence convicted at the Old-Baily, and executed at Tyburn, for being in a Plot to burn London upon the third of September following, which nevertheless happen'd when the time came, altho' those Men were hang'd. See the Gazette, No. 48, for Ap. 11

April 1666. Quere, If London was burnt by humane Conrivance, who burns it, Papists or Fanaticks?

14 Holy-cross-day, frequently called Bo'y Rood-day; Rood in Old Saxon signifies either the Cross or Picture of Christ on the Cross: It is also called Exaltatio Crucis, or the Exaltation of the Cross, as the third of May is celebrated for the finding of the Cross by St. Helen; so this is observ'd for its being regain'd a 2d time by Heraclius the Emperor, who took it from the Persians, that had it in their Possession 14 Years, carried it on his Shoulders to Mount Calvary, and there exalted it with extraordinary Solemnity.

21 St. Matthew Apostle and Evangelist, who by preaching in Ethiopia, converted King Aglippus and his People to Christianity, and was slain at the Altar with a Sword, as he was exercising his Ministerial Function, Anno 44.

29 St. Michael the Archangel, in Commemoration of the Battle fought by him in Heaven with the Dragon and his Apostate Angels, Apocal. 12, 7. It is also call'd Michaels-mass from the many Masses that are said this Day in the Roman Church.

OCTOBER.

18 St. Luke the Evangelist, Author of the Acts of the Apostles, by Profession a Physician at Antioch, who after he had been a Faithful Promoter of the Gospel, died at Ephesus, Anno 74, in the 84th Year of his Age.

25 Crispin, a Roman and Martyr, Anno 285.

28 St. Simon, surnam'd Zelotes, and S. Jude, surnam'd Thaddew and Lebena, both Apostles and Martyrs: Their Memories are jointly celebrated this Day, who finished the Faith, after they had converted a number of Souls, in the Year of Christ 68.

NOVEMBER.

1 All-Saints, or All-hallows, a Solemnity in Memory of all the Saints.

2 All-Souls; a Day in the Roman Church for Supplicating by Prayers the Souls of the Faithful deceas'd.

5 Powder-Treason-day, celebrated in Memory of a signal Delivery, Anno 1605, when some Popish Zelots had designed to blow up King, Lords, and Commons with Gun-powder. Likewise remarkable for the Landing of the Prince of Orange; as also by Dr. Sacheverell's Preaching at St. Paul's, which Sermon has happily open'd the Eyes of the Nation, and detected the Designs of its Enemies in Church and State.

11. St. Martin, Bishop and Confessor, Anno 397. It is also call'd Martinmass, a Time peculiarly noted in some Parts of England for sundry Purposes.

22 Cecilia, a Virgin and Martyr, Anno 225.

23 Clement, Bishop of Rome and Martyr, Anno 92.

25 Catharine, a Virgin and Martyr, Anno 305.

30. St. Andrew Apostle and Martyr, after he had suffer'd most cruel beating for the Sake of the Gospel which he Preach'd in Thracia and Scythia, was fasten'd to a Cross where he hung alive 3 Days, and gave up the Ghost, Anno 69. He is esteem'd the Ticular Patron of Scotland.

D E C E M B E R.

13 Lucie, a Virgin and Martyr, Anno 305.

21 St. Thomas, surnam'd Didymus, Apostle and Martyr.

he preach'd the Gospel in India, where he was at last slain with a Lance, Anno 75.

25 Nativity of Christ, a most solemn Feast celebrated by the Church even from the Apostles Times to this Day, in Memory of the Birth of our Saviour at Bethlehem in Judea. It is call'd Christmass, from the number of Masses celebrated in the Roman Church to his Honour.

THIS Author having Compos'd Ephemerides of the Planets Motions for 23 Years successively, beginning with the Year 1690, to this Time; This is to inform all the Sons of Prania they may be furnish'd at the Author's House with compleat Sets of them, or any single Year from that Time.

*Easie and sure Way, if a Chimney be on Fire,
How to Extinguish it.*

If a Chimny happen on fire, and is in great Danger of Setting the whole House or Building in a Flame, Take the Fire from the Hearth, and set a Tub, or Vessel of Water in the Chimny in the Place thereof: Then, wet a Blanket or such like thing, in Water, and Nail it to the Mantle-piece and Sides of the Chimny, so that it reaches the Hearth to keep the Air from the Chimny; which done you will soon find the Effects, for the Humidness of the Water, will soon cause all the Fire to tumble down.

And considering that Houses are often times on fire, burnt down, and many Families utterly ruined by the Carelesness of Servants, therefore in the Seventh Year of our gracious Queen to prevent those Mischiefs for the future, it was Enacted, and Papers dispersed throughout the City of London, by the Honourable Sir William Wimbors, Lord Mayor, to give Notice to all Servants of the Penalties thereof, and since young Heads are forgetful, and others are daily growing up, which were then but Children, do conceive it may be of Service to remind those that have forgot, and to inform such, as are Ignorant of the Dangers that will ensue, to repeat the following Clause.

And whereas Fires often happen by the Negligence and Carelessness of Servants, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That if any Menial Servant or Servants, through Negligence and Carelesness, shall fire, or cause to be fired any Dwelling-House, or Out-House, or Houses, such Servant or Servants being lawfully Convicted by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, made before Two or more of her Majesties Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay the sum of One Hundred Pounds unto the Church-wardens of such Parish where such Fire shall happen, to be distributed amongst the Sufferers by such Fire, in such Proportions as to the said Church-wardens shall seem just; And in case of Default or Refusal to pay the same immediately after such Conviction, the same being lawfully demanded by the said Church-wardens, That then and in such Case, such Servant or Servants shall, by Warrant under the Hand of Two or more of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace be committed to some Work-House, or House of Correction, as the said Justices shall think fit, for the space of Eighteen Months, there to be kept to hard Labour.

The Use of the TABLES for weighing of Bread.

THe Price of Wheat by the Bushel being known, look for the same under the Title of the Price of Wheat by the Bushel, being the outermost Column to the Left-Hand, and even therewith towards the Right, under its proper Title is the weight of the Penny Loaf, White, Wheaten or Household, and by going on further in the same Line towards the Right-hand, you will find the Weight of the Twelve penny Loaf both Wheaten and Household, as also how much Money in either sort must be paid for a Peck Loaf that contains 18 Pound Weight.

Example.

Suppose the Price of Wheat be 5s. 9d. the Bushel, what shall be the Weight of Penny Bread, White, Wheaten or Household? Look for 5s. 9d. in the First, and even with it you will find 6 Ounces 6 Drams for the White, 9 Ounces Drams under Wheaten, and 12 Ounces 13 Drams for the Household Bread; for so much every one ought to Weigh. And the Twelve-penny Loaf Wheaten, at that Price, must be 7 Pounds. 3 Ounces 1 Dram, the Household 9 Pounds 9 Ounces 7 Drams; and the Peck Loaf Wheaten is 2s. 6d. the Household 1s. 10d. 2 farthings; the same is to be observed if Wheat bear any other Price.

Note, 16 Drams makes an Ounce and 16 Ounces a Pound.

The Foundation of the University of CAMBRIDGE, with a Catalogue of the principal Founders, and special Benefactors of all the Colleges, and total Number of Students, Magistrates and Officers therein Anno 1634.

THE learn'd in Antiquities, have written diversely about the Time of the Foundation of the University of Cambridge: Some affirming it was founded by * Cantabax a Prince of Spain, Brother to Partholinus King of Ireland, Son-in Law to Gurgantius, King of Great Britain, many Years before the Incarnation of our Saviour Christ; of whose Name (according to the Spanish Language) it was first called Cantabriga, after of his Son Grantinus (who is said to have Walled it about) Grant-riga and Grantbridge. Others say, That Cassivilanus, Prince of the Troynabantes, King Octavius, Arthur, King of Great Britain, and Ethlebert, King of Kent, were each of 'em Founders or Restorers of the same. But the chiefeſt conclude and agree, That Sigebert King of the East-Angles, was the principal Founder thereof, about the Years 630 and 636, who assigned divers Hostles and Houses for Students to inhabit in, giving them large Privileges and Charters, whereof some are yet extant, procuring also great Immunities from Pope Honorius I. which Uergius I. confirm'd. Since which Time, by reason of many Incurſions and continual Wars between the Britains, Romans, Saxons, the Kings of this Heptarchy; Danes and Normans, the Light and Glory of this Academy, was not only of Old much eclipsed, but even since the Conquest (in the Barons Wars) also obscured and defaced: And it is most certain, as the Destructions were many, so the Restorations thereof shortly ensued by one Prince or other; so that at length recovering it self, it is most worthily reputed one of the famous Universities in the World. Much Honour this Place hath received by the Sons and Nephews of Kings, in being Earls thereof, viz. William Brother to Ranulph, Earl of Chester, John Earl of Henault, Uncle to Philip le Beau, King of France, whose Daughter Isabel was Wife to King Edward II. and Mother to King Edward III. William Marquess of Juliars, Edmund of Langley, Duke of York,

Anno Christi 1630.

Edward

Edward Duke of York, Richard Earl of Cambridge, Richard Duke of York, James Marquess Hamilton, Earl of Arran, Baron Hamilton of Chatterault, &c. and at this present James Marquess Hamilton Earl of Arran, &c. Master of the Horse to his Majesty &c. And howsoever the Hostles, Halls, Inns, Schools and religious Houses, wherof the University before and since the Conquest did consist, which now are wholly defaced, or in part converted into some of the present Colleges, were for their Number and Number of Students in them much above all that are now extant, many of them being formerly known by these Names, Fraier de Penitentia, Jesu Christi, S. Johanna, Zacharii, S. Botolphi, Divi Gerhardi, S. Edvardi, S. Edmundi, S. Augustini, Divi Thoma, Beata, Maria, S. Clementis, Hoving Diversorium, Divi Gregorii, S. Matgarette, S. Katherine Hospitium, Pbiswici, Tegulari Hospitium, Harlstoni Diversorium, S. Trinitatis, Domus Dei, Ruddi Hospitium, Michalis Domus Aulae Regiae, S. Pauli Diversorium, Burdeni Hospitium, with many others; yet at this present it consists of Sixteen goodly Colleges and Halls, erected and maintained with the Lands and Revenues of their several Founders (one of the Chappels thereof founded by Holy King Henry VI. and the College of the holy and undivided Trinity, founded by King Henry VIII. no University in the World can in all Points parallel.) These are the Nurseries of God's true Religion, and Seminaries of good Literature, which by the special Favour and gracious Protection of our most dear Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Queen, &c. do enjoy all Peace and Happiness.

St. Peter's College, or House, 1280.

Hugo de Balsbam, Sub-prior, and after Bishop of Ely, began the Foundation of this College about Anno 1257, in the Place where the two Hostles of Students were (purchas'd the one for the Friers de Penitentia Jesu Christi; the other for the Friers Hospitalis S. Johannis) and near to the Church of S. Peters extra Trumpington Gates. He settled not the Endowment till Anno 1284, at which Time upon Suit of both Parties, translating the Seculars unto this Place, he establish'd One Master and Fourteen Fellows, and died before all Things were finish'd. After Simon de Montacute, Simon Langham, and John Fordam. Bishops of Ely, added to their Means. In this while S. Peter's Church

The Explanation of the following TABLES.

THE Left Hand Page shews in what Sign Degree and Minute of the Zodiack, the Seven Planets are posited: namely ♄ Saturn, ♃ Jupiter, ♀ Mars, ☉ Sol, ♀ Venus, ☿ Mercury, and the ☾ Moon, as they are beheld at Noon in the Meridian of London, with their Latitude, either North or South, from the Ecliptick, denoted by the Letters A and B, A being for Austra, or South Latitude, B for Boreal or North. The Moons Latitude is shewn to every day, but the other viz ♄ ♃ ♀ ☉ ☿ to every 5th day, as is express'd in every Page.

The outermost Column of the same Page towards the Left Hand, shews the Suns Declination at Noon, North or South from the Equator, which is of ready Use for all out Navigators.

In the Right Hand Pages.

Is contain'd the Heliocentrick Places of the Planets, or their Motions about the Sun to every 5th day of the Month, and even thereto, is not'd under the Title of Day light begin and end, the Hour and Minute of the dawning of the day, and the end of Twilight. The First and Third Row of Figures signifie the Hours, and the Second the Minutes, which is common to both; for so many Minutes as the Day breaks after any Hour, so many Minutes Twilight ends before the other Hour Parallel to it.

To find the time of the Sun Rising and Setting, the same Method is to be observ'd under its proper Column, as was about the beginning and end of Day light.

The next Column having the Title of Watch too fast, or Watch too slow, contains the Equation of Time in Minutes and Seconds of an Hour, and shews how much a well regulated Clock or Watch ought to differ from a true Sun Dial; being sometimes faster, at other times slower then the Dial, as is directed.

In the same Pages is also noted all Mutual Aspects of the Planets, both Heliocentrick and Geocentrick, and between those, under the Title of The Lunar Aspects, is noted the Hour when the Moon comes to the Body or Aspect, of any of those Planets. Where it is to be observed, that Astronomers begin the Day at Noon (as is related in the first Chapter of Ge-nesis, where 'tis said, The Evening and the Morning made the first Day, &c. and count 24 Hours to the Day.

The Use of the following Table of Interest at all Rates.

THE Rule is, Multiply the Sum, and the Days which the Interest is required for, one by the other, then multiply that Product by the Rate; which being done, cancel or cut off to the Right Hand, one Figure of that Product, then from the Right Hand divide the rest by Points into Pares, as is done in the following Specimen, and if there be an odd Figure remains to the Left Hand, it must be taken singly by it self from the following Table, with so many Cyphers on the top of each Column, that it may retain its Power, and in the Angle of meeting are certain Numbers, which you are to take out. Do the same with the rest of the Numbers (so pared) with so many Cyphers on the top as is before directed, and place them in order for Addition, according to the following Method.

Then add those Numbers taken out of the Table, into one Sum; when that is done, separate with a Point three places from the Right Hand; then all the Figures on the Left are Pounds, and those on the Right are Thousand Parts of Pounds, and are valued thus: The first Figure doubled is Shillings, the Second and Third joined are Pence things, abating one in 25.

Example.

What is the Interest of 9652 Pounds, for 325 Days, at 5 l. per Cent.

The Sum ——— 9652
Multiply Days 325

48260 19304
28956

3136250

By the Rate 5

The Prod. 1.56.84.5010

The Product after a Separation, as is directed, consists of seven Places, and being divided with Points into Pares, enter the following Table thus:

1000000 gives 273973
560000 ——— 153425
8400 ——— 2301
50 ——— 14

429.713

The Sum produced is 429 Pounds
14 Shillings, 3 Pence Farthing.

An Elegy on y^e Death of the late King James who departed at his Palace of St. Germain's in France on Friday Septemb^r. 6th 1705 in the 69th year of his Age. ~ ~ ~

What humours this affords our ears amuse
Strange tydings now approaches in our News
The late King James who once rul'd y^e Isle
Is now departed in a foreign Soil
Such news was brought before it was decreed
But now alas y^e Prince is Dead indeed
Whose native Land is Mourning ^{his} last fate
Because his Life was so unfortunate Always perplext, most sad unkind his Stars
His peace envy'd, unfortunate his Wars
Flatter'd by foes deceiv'd by Bosom friends Dark clouds of fate his Youth & age attends Fortune in various shapes did smile & frown
He had his cross on earth as well as Crown
Misled by friends impos'd upon by foes
He soon ^{lost} his Kingdom & his Crown got loose
By evil Council was this Prince undone
The fault in others not so much his own
His Royal father felt y^e stroke of fate
And lost his life at his own Palace Gate

Such turns of State, us mortals may convince Uncertain fate attends y^e greatest Princes
Then who would be proud of Kings thus stoop to fate
The best of Men's not always fortunate
The faultless man if any such there be
Is not exempt from fatesunkind decrees
The patient Job severely felt the Rod
His Crosses many; tho in peace with God
And righteous David, King of great renown
He bare y^e Cross as well as wore y^e Crown
And tho esteemed as after Gods own heart
In sorrows and afflictions had his part
No sooner was his happy Reign begun
Butt was afflicted by a wicked Son
So tis no rule where troubles do commone
That such a one is bad by consequence
No: evil Men sometimes they flourish most
As we too often find it to our cost
There scarce a Mortal ever yet drew breath
But had their failings while they livd on earth
The most precise if all their faults w^{re} known
Are ten times greater y^e themselves would own
Then Princes can expect no better fate
When ones they fall from high degrees of State

From earthly smiles and turn'd into a frown
All round their hands to help y^e sinking down
This was found true when great James lost y^e crown
But as Jam told he did not count it loss
He gain'd Heaven by the earthly Cross
Hah: happy loss y^e brings such lasting gains
Instead of earthly Heav'nly Crowns obtains
Such ~~best~~ ^{best} rewards of purest Love divine Makes earthly Princes Saints in Heaven shine
His Pious Soul wth sweet repenting breath
And like a Lamb he mildly lost y^e earth
He freely did forgive all worldly wrongs
All scandals Malice & abusive Tongues
His worst of foes he frankly did forgive
And pray'd for y^m as long as he did live
And with great Pines they trouble now are o're
No earthly sorrows thou shalt see no more

The Epitaph

Here lies y^e Prince was once great Brittain's King
His Land ruin'd by Deaths most fatal Sting
A Prince whose life was full of toil & Care
But little comfort whi^{ch} in peace or Wars
His very friends who stood most in need
They left him helpless as y^e fates decreed
The most refined Mould is yet but dust And unto earth return again it must

Northampton April 5th 1706

This day died John Balos of this Town Butcher Maker Aged 130 & some Weeks. he liv'd in the Reigns of Queen Elizabeth, King James 1st,
King Charles 1st, Oliver King Charles 2nd, King James 2nd the 1st, King William the Third, and Queen Ann.

The last Dying Words & Prayer of John Matthews which he left with a friend before his Execution Friday Novemb^r. 6th 1759.

It being expected from Persons who die after the Manner that I do, to leave something in Writing concerning the Faith and profession they were on when living, and the cause for which they suffer, I take this occasion to let the World know, that I go out of it with a Heart full of Assurance of eternall Salvation (through y^e Merits of my Blesed Saviour, that dyed an Innocent death for the Sins of all Mankind) as a Member of y^e Catholick Church which is established by Law in this Kingdome & that y^e Tenets I hold, are such as are agreeable to those Doctrines that teach the Principles of obedience to Lawfull Princes, without resisting y^e Powers that are ordained by God.

It was from hence that I receiv'd and imbib'd the opinion for which I suffer and which by the grace of Almighty I will retain to my last Breath, ~~not~~ being satisfied, what so ever shall be reported to the prejudice of my good Name after my Death, that ^{the} ex dictato of God are preferable to all Ordinances of Men derived from what so ever Rise and authority.

I shall not here make such reflection as may bring the person, into whose Hands I give these dying Words under the displeasure of the Government now in being, but take this opportunity of saying, I had some reason to expect a gentler treatment from the tenderneſs of my Years & the Nature of my accusation, than y^e sentence that is now going to be put in execution against me, and for which, I bless God notwithstanding y^e little

Time that has been allow'd me for due Preparations, I am truly thankfull, through this Vale of sorrow
I hope to be a partaker of Eternal joy.

I might have also been befriend'd so far as to have had the assistance of such able Divines, in my last Moments, as hold the same Tests with myself, and were of the same Communion, and have had the satisfaction of taking my last farewell of my Dear Mother, whom I go out of the World without so much as a sight of: God forgive y^e Authors of those inhumane Barbarities.

The Prayer

O thou gracious Redeemer, at the last Day, when thou shalt visit the Sins of the World in Judgment; forgive all and every one of y^e Persons concern'd in my Death from the highest to the lowest, in thy great Mercy spare the very evidences that have sworn away my Life: impute not, I beseech thee, most Holy and most Righteous Judge, y^e unrighteousness to any one, which in the Eye of the World he may seem Guilty of.

Forgive the inadvertencies of my Brother, who has in a great Measure been the cause of my Death; be a Comfort to my Dear Mother, and support her under the Afflictions she must bear on my account and plead thou the cause of the distress'd Widow. Hear me good Lord hear me in this Day of my Tribulation, and the Hours of my last anguish, and receive my Soul into thy Blessed Mansions, that I may find succour under the shadow of thy wings, come Lord Jesus come quickly.
Amen

An Account transmitted to London from Scotland concerning y^e Massacre of Glenco.

Edinburgh Apr: 20: 1692

The account you desire of y^e strange and surprising Massacre of Glenco, takes as follows:

Mac-jan, Macdonald Laird of Glenco, a branch of y^e Macdonalds one of the greatest Clans (or Tribes) in the North of Scotland, came with y^e most considerable men of his Clan to Col: Hill, Governour of Fort William at Inverlochy some days before y^e expiring of y^e Time for receiving of y^e indemnity appointed by Proclamation, ^{ch} was tak^e it, was y^e first of January last; Intreating he would Administer unto him y^e oaths ^{ch} y^e said Proclamation required to be taken, y^e so submitting himself to y^e Government he might have its protection. y^e Col: receiv^d him wth all expressions of kindness, notwithstanding they shifted & administering oaths to him alldging, by a Proclamation it did not belong to him, but to the Sheriffs, Bayliffs of Royalities, & Magistrates of Burghs to administer these. Macjane complaining by this appointment he might be wrong'd, & time being now near expiring & weather so extreme & ways so bad that it was not possible for him so soon to reach any Sheriff; he got from Clond Hill under his hand his Protection, and withall he was assur'd, y no orders from y Government against him should be put in execution, until he were first advertis'd & had time allow'd him to apply himself to King or Council for his own safety. But y better to wake all sure, (tho this might have seem'd security enough at y Time) wth all dispatch imaginable he post'd to Inverary, y chief Town of Argyllshire, thers he found J^m Collins Campbell of Ardkinloch Sheriff of y. shire, & crav'd of him y benefit of y Indemnity according to y Procla-mation, he being willing to performe all y Conditions requir'd. J^m Collins at first scrupled to admit him to the oaths, & ^{the} time ^{of} Proclamation did appoint going slaps'd by one Day; alledging it would be of no use to him, then to take y^e. But Macjan represented it was not his fault, he having come in time enough to Col. Hill, not doubting, but if he would have administered oaths to him, & if upon his refusal, he made such haste to Jurorary, if he might come in time enough, had not y^e extremity of y^e Weather hinder'd after y^e time appointed & if it would be very unbecoming y^e

Government, to take advantage of a Mans coming late but one Day, especially when he had done his utmost to come in Time. Upon this & his threatening to protest against y^e Sheriff for the severity of this usage, he administered to him & his Attendants y^e oaths, Macjan depending upon y^e indemnity granted to those who should take y^e, & having so done, he went Home & lived quietly & peaceably under y^e Government till y^e Day of his Death. In Jan: last a party of y^e Earl of Argylls Regiment came to y^e Country; the design of their coming was then suspected to be, to take a Convent with those, who should stand out, & not submit & take y^e oaths. y^e Garrison of Inverlochy being throug'd, & Glouco being convenient for quartering, as being near y^e Garrison, those Soldiers were sent thither to Quarter: they pretended they came to exact Arrears of C^{ts} & Hearth money, (a Tax now known in Scotland, until laid on by the Parliament 1660, after y^e Parliament of England had saved themselves of it, & re they order'd Glouco, y^e Laird & his Sons came out to meet y^m. Asked y^m if they came as friends, y^e Officers answer'd as friends, & gave their Parole of honour, th^t they would do him neither him nor his country any harm; upon th^e he welcome'd y^m, promising y^m y^e best entertainment y^e place could afford. This he really perform'd, as all y^e Soldiers confess;

he & they liv'd together in mutual kindness & friendship 15 Days or thereabouts, so far was he from fearing any hurt from y^m. & y^e very last Day of his life he spent in keeping company wth y^e Commander of y^e Party at Camp, both of Glouco, playing at Cards with him till 6 or 7 at Night & at their parting mutual Protestations of Kindness were nowd some time, that every Day. But whether ford or after their parting I know not. I ampbell had the of order sent him from Major Duneason, a copy whereof I have sent you.
